13 million visitors a year visit Blackpool - the UK's undisputed capital of family fun – be one of them in 2011!

Blackpool's never needed an excuse to have fun – but in case you need inspiration then take a look at our calendar of world-class events. From amazing fireworks and air displays to dance spectacles, sporting fixtures, concerts with wow-factor, and Showzam! – our annual festival of magic, circus and new variety - something's sure to take your fancy! To find out what's on, go to visitblackpool.com.

Northern Rail trains from Liverpool South Parkway now call at Blackpool, seven times a day.

From just £15.60* you can be in Blackpool in under two hours and with these money saving vouchers you can be sure of a grand day out. Or why not turn a great day into a short break?

Have a go at the competition in this leaflet to win a family mini-break in Blackpool. You'll stay two nights at the Carousel Hotel, receive a goody bag of free attractions tickets and win return rail travel to Blackpool, all for a family of four. (Two adults and up to two children, subject to terms and conditions).

So dust off your bucket and spade, pack a picnic and get ready for a world class time in Blackpool!

Direct trains leave Liverpool South Parkway at 10:36, 11:36, 12:36, 13:36, 14:36, 15:36 and 16:36, Mondays–Saturdays and it takes just 1 hour 45 minutes (at other times you will need to change trains at Lime Street Station).
